ECHA Candidate List of Substances of Very High Concern (SVHC)

On 17 January 2023, the European Chemicals Agency (ECHA) formally published an update of the Candidate List of Substances of Very High Concern (SVHC) in accordance with Article 59 (10) of the REACH regulation.

With this update, 9 additional substances have been put on the Candidate List.

Link: http://echa.europa.eu/web/guest/candidate-list-table

This is to confirm that in the manufacture of

- offset printing inks and lacquers (sheetfed, heat-set, coldset),
- UV/Radiation curing printing inks and lacquers
- ACRYLAC water-based overprint varnishes
- solvent-based flexo and gravure inks and lacquers
- fountain solution concentrates
- HYDRO-X, water-based printing inks, varnishes, concentrates and extenders
- ACRYLAC printing inks supplied by member companies of the hubergroup, located in the European Union, with hubergroup labels to Customers located in the European Union, substances from the Candidate list of SVHC, as updated on 17 January 2023, are not intentionally used. We confirm that the content of any of these substances will be below 0.1%.

Therefore, the use of hubergroup printing inks and further products listed above, supplied by member companies of the hubergroup, located in the European Union, with hubergroup labels to Customers located in the European Union for the manufacture of articles does not generate any obligations with regards to notification to the SCIP database regarding the products listed above.

Disclaimer:

The information contained herein is based upon data believed to be up-to-date and correct at the time of writing. It is provided to our customers in order to enable them to answer specific customer requests. Since the application of the inks and varnishes and the conditions of use are beyond our control, the information provided does not represent a guarantee of any kind for the final printed product.

Kirchheim, 17 January 2023

hubergroup Deutschland GmbH
Contact: Product Safety hubergroup Europe
E-mail: product-safety@hubergroup.com